

UT Southwestern Department of Psychiatry

Our Vision: To meet the behavioral health needs of diverse communities across North Texas and beyond by increasing equitable access to psychiatric care and the latest advancements in neuroscience and psychiatry and preparing an effective workforce to achieve these objectives.

Our Mission: Discover, Educate, and Heal the Mind, Body, and Brain

UT Southwestern President Daniel K. Podolsky, M.D., at the Texas Behavioral Health Center groundbreaking ceremony

Faculty

289*

Adjunct Faculty

194*

Staff

277*

Residents, Fellows,
Grad Students,
Postdocs

174*

Specialty Care

- Addictions
- Adult Autism
- Early Psychosis
- Eating Disorders
- Intracranial Therapies
- Neuro/Geriatric Psychiatry
- Neuromodulation Therapies
- Suicide Prevention and Treatment
- Transitional Age Youth
- Treatment-Resistant Depression
- Women's Health

Multispecialty Psychiatry Clinic at Empire Plaza 1

*as of August 2023

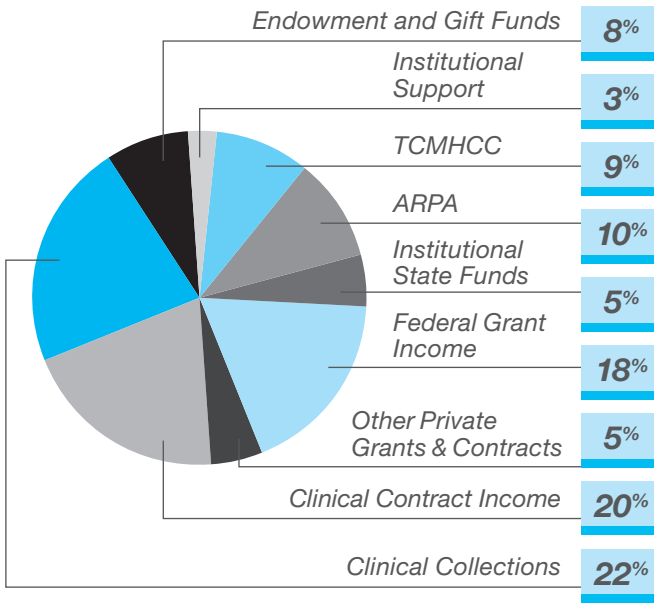

UT Southwestern
O'Donnell Brain Institute

$102 Million

FY23
Funding

392

Publications indexed in Scopus in 2022, accumulating 1,930+ citations

Active Research Studies

238

Psychiatry
Neuroscience Faculty

Seungwon (Sebastian)
Choi, Ph.D., Choi lab

Education

#15 Residency training program for psychiatry in the U.S.*

- 41 General psychiatry residents training at 6 sites
- 3 Special tracks training 25 residents: child/adult psychiatry combined (9); research (8); rural/public mental health (7)
- 3 Combined programs training 19 residents: internal medicine (11); neurology (4); triple board (4)
- 5 ACGME-certified fellowships training 24 fellows: addiction (3); child and adolescent (17); consultation-liaison (1); forensic (1); geriatric (2)
- 7 Neuroscience doctoral students
- 8 Neuroscience postdoctoral researchers
- 2 Clinical psychology and 5 neuropsychology postdoctoral fellows
- 43 Clinical psychology doctoral students

*According to Doximity Residency Navigator 2023-24

Scan the QR code
to view our latest
news and newsletter
archive.

Psychiatry Residency Graduation 2023