

Pediatric Emergency Medicine Rotation

Patient Care:

1. Provide family centered patient care in a compassionate and effective manner during the treatment of health problems and the promotion of health.
 - a. Gathers essentials and accurate information including history and physical examination.
 - b. Demonstrates ability to accurately assess clinical status of patient to determine appropriate triage and prioritization
 - c. Demonstrate evidence of outside reading/utilization of additional resources to supplement knowledge base and reinforce clinical decision making and management
 - d. Demonstrate ability to evaluate and manage patient with complex clinical problem
 - e. Demonstrates appropriate use of consultation
 - f. Assessment and stabilization of the acutely ill or injured patient
 - g. Competently perform essential medical procedures including appropriateness of procedures, informed consent and technical ability
 - h. Acknowledge limitations and appropriately seeks assistance

Medical Knowledge:

1. Understanding the scope of established and evolving biomedical, clinical, epidemiologic and social-behavioral knowledge; demonstrated the ability to acquire, critically interpret and apply knowledge in patient care.
 - a. Demonstrate appropriate knowledge of clinical and related sciences with application to patient care
 - b. Knows and/or accesses medical information efficiently, evaluates it critically and can apply to patient care.

Practice Based Learning:

1. Demonstrate, knowledge, skills, and attitudes needed for continuous self-assessment, using scientific method and evidence to investigate, evaluate and improve one's patient care.
 - a. Actively pursues continuing education through examination of peer review publications and review articles and assimilates information to patient care.
 - b. Contributes to ongoing education conferences sponsored by the division and department, including regular attendance and completion of assignment
 - c. Participates in the education of medical students and residents
 - d. Seeks feedback on performance and incorporates feedback given to improve performance

Interpersonal and Communication Skills:

1. Demonstrates interpersonal and communication skills that results in information exchange and partnering with patients, their families and professional associates
 - a. Demonstrates effective interpersonal skills, is respected by team members, peers, and patients
 - b. Creates therapeutic and ethically sound relationships with patient/ families
 - c. Demonstrates leadership skills with the health care team
 - d. Maintains complete, informative and timely medical records
 - e. Effectively communicates with consulting and referring physicians

Professionalism:

1. Demonstrates a commitment to carrying out professional responsibilities, adherence to ethical principles and sensitivity to diversity
 - a. Exhibits honesty, integrity and compassion
 - b. Demonstrates sensitivity to age, genders, culture, and disabilities in patient/ families
 - c. Is an effective team player, seeking opportunities to help others
 - d. Arrives on time and is prepared for check out
 - e. Participates in the activities and responsibilities of the division (conference preparation & attendance)
 - f. Effectively manages assigned tasks, carries through with commitments, meets deadlines, assumes ownership of assignment

Systems Based Practice

1. Demonstrates understanding of how to practice high quality health care and advocate for patients within the context of the health care system
 - a. Advocates for quality patient care and assists patient in dealing with system complexities
 - b. Effectively utilizes hospital resources to achieve appropriate care
 - c. Appropriately escalates care when needed
 - d. Responds promptly and appropriately to the concerns of other health care professionals
 - e. Avoids the use of ambiguous and unacceptable abbreviations in the medical record, prescription and orders.
 - f. Responds to medical error and patient safety concerns