

Be Aware or Beware – Global Clinical Trial Regulations

Biography of Frederick (“Rick”) Robinson and Marti Cherry

Rick Robinson is the Co-Chair of the Life Sciences Practice Group of the law firm of Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P. He also is the head of the firm’s Health Law practice in Washington, D.C. His practice covers a wide range of federal and state regulations relating to health care, including clinical trials. He also assists health care providers in conducting legal compliance audits and in creating and implementing compliance programs designed to detect and prevent violations of law.

Mr. Robinson received his undergraduate and law degrees with honors from Duke University and is a member of the District of Columbia and Maryland bars. He also is a member of the White Collar Crime Committee of the American Bar Association’s Criminal Justice Section and its Subcommittee on Health Care Fraud, as well as the American Health Lawyers Association and the American Compliance Institute. Mr. Robinson’s phone number is 202-662-4534.

Marti Cherry is an associate in the firm’s Litigation and International Arbitration sections. Her practice includes working with global clients conducting business abroad to resolve disputes through international arbitration and in compliance with international law. She joined Fulbright’s Houston office in 2008 after clerking for U.S. District Court Judge David Hittner in the Southern District of Texas. Marti re-located to the Dallas office in October 2011.
