The Importance of Women’s Health in Achieving Global Health

For decades, the United States has been a global leader in advancing public health around the world. Join us for this exciting event, in which a diverse group of experts will speak about how public and private investments in women’s health and rights can help the U.S. continue to achieve broad and sustained global health outcomes around the world.

WHEN

Wednesday, May 16, 2012

Doors Open at 5:00 pm  |  Panel Discussion: 5:30 pm.
Reception: 7:00 pm (Enjoy food & beverages.)

WHERE

The T. Boone Pickens Biomedical Building at the University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center

Panel discussion will be held in the T. Boone Pickens Auditorium (NG3.112). Reception will take place on the 14th floor.

Parking is available in the visitor garage located adjacent to the building. It is entered from 6001 Forest Park Road. The garage elevators will take you to the third floor (street level).

PANELISTS

Dr. Fiemu Nwariaku, Moderator
Associate Dean for Global Health at UT Southwestern Medical Center

Dr. Doyin Oluwole
Executive Director of the Pink Ribbon Red Ribbon Partnership

Dr. Kenneth Leveno
Chair in Obstetrics and Gynecology at UT Southwestern

Eva Burgos
General Coordinator for the Public Health Institute’s GoJoven Belize Program

Dr. Suzanne Petroni
Vice President of Global Health at the Public Health Institute

RSVP

Please e-mail cmeregistrations@utsouthwestern.edu