Apical cochlear turn showing a Med-El electrode array inserted to near the apical tip of the basilar membrane (white arrow). The black arrow indicates the apical-most electrode contact which is situated beneath the semi-transparent basilar membrane.