

Whole-mount, osmium-stained preparations of organ of Corti as seen by light (A) and scanning electron (B) microscopy. The level of focus in "A" is such that the cell bodies (rather than apical surfaces) of the outer hair cells (OHC) are seen. These preparations are from laboratory animals.

