

2009-2010 Science of Medicine Theme: Cancer

v2010.03.02

Learning Community Day for Cancer

A campus-wide event bringing together learning communities from graduate, health professions and medical schools to culminate a year of cancer emphasis. Directed by Dr. Jerry Shay and sponsored in part by the Harold C. Simmons Comprehensive Cancer Center.

Wednesday, April 7, 2010

| | | |
|-------------------|--|-------------|
| 8 AM – 6:30 PM | Posters available for viewing D1-Plaza | OPEN to All |
| 12:50 PM | Learning Community Day Welcome and Orientation Gooch Auditorium | OPEN to All |
| 1-1:50 PM | Cancer: Tomorrow's Care Today James Willson, M.D., John Minna, M.D. and Joan Schiller, M.D. Gooch Auditorium | OPEN to All |
| 2-2:40 PM | Interprofessional Poster Presentations and Evaluations D1-Plaza | OPEN to All |

Poster Presentations: each presenter will make a ten-minute oral presentation of his/her poster at either 2:10 PM (even-numbered posters) or 2:25 PM (odd-numbered posters).

Poster Evaluations: each poster presenter will have an assigned, interprofessional audience of about 6 students from graduate, health professions and medical schools. Audience members will fill out a communication rubric to evaluate the presentation. The scored rubrics will be turned in to drop boxes located around the Plaza. Poster presenters will receive feedback on their presentations.

| | | |
|--------------|--|------------|
| 2:55-3:45 PM | Interprofessional, Small-group Discussion: A Cancer Case Study Various Conference Rooms Medical (MS2), Health Professions (HP1) and Graduate (DBS1) Students | LIMITED to |
|--------------|--|------------|

Small Group Assignments: Each group of 12 will contain medical, health professions and graduate students.

Small Group Leaders: Academic College mentors and Ethics facilitators from the medical school along-side faculty from graduate and health professions schools

Cancer Case Study: To include interprofessional subject matter relevant to ethical aspects of cancer treatment. Case will be introduced ahead of time to learning communities in each school.

| | | |
|-----------|---|-------------|
| 4-5:00 PM | University Lecture: "Deconstructing Tumor Suppression" Gerard I. Evan, Ph.D. FRS, University of California San Francisco Gooch Auditorium | OPEN to All |
| 5-6:30 PM | Reception, Posters and Awards D1 Plaza | OPEN to All |