

Advanced Anatomic Pathology - Objectives

Professionalism

Residents learn to conduct themselves and communicate in a professional manner through interactions, consultations, and conference presentations with their peers, Pathology staff, laboratory staff, and clinicians and clinical staff. Professional behavior is included in both written and oral form to the residents.