

Assessment Tools Used and by which Evaluators:

Rotation	PD	FS	RN	PT	OT	ST	SW	Psy
Clinical Performance Ratings	X	X
Focused Observation and Evaluation (ROCA)	X	X
360 Assessments			X	X	X	X	X	X
Structured Case Discussions	X	X
Stimulated Chart Recall		X
Resident Project Report	X
Required Reading	X	X						X

Identification of Supervisors/Evaluators:

- PD = Program Director
- FS = Faculty Supervisor
- RN = Nursing
- PT= Physical therapist
- OT= Occupational therapist
- ST= Speech and language pathology/therapy
- SW= Social worker
- Psy = psychologist

ROCA = Residency Observation & Competency Assessment (see form and instructions)

Medical Knowledge Assessment:

- On-line exams based on textbook materials- periodically based on schedule
- Self-Assessment Examination in PM&R – annual, national examination in January
- Self-Assessment Examination in Electrodiagnostic Medicine- PGY 3 & 4 only –annual
- Mock oral board exams- twice yearly
- Faculty evaluation of resident

Patient Care Assessment:

- Faculty evaluation of resident
- 360 Evaluations
- PD review of written history and physical exams, EMG reports, and discharge summaries
- Supervisor review of written progress notes, H&P, discharge summaries

Practice Based Learning and Improvement:

Use of online resources in searching for patient related information in clinic and hospital
Faculty evaluation of resident
Review of radiographs, MRI and other imaging in clinical settings
Journal Club review of current articles from peer-reviewed literature
Grand Rounds presentation in PGY-3 and PGY-4 years
Research project

Interpersonal and Communication Skills

360 Evaluations
Faculty evaluation of resident
Mock oral board exams
PD review of written history and physical exams, EMG reports, and discharge summaries

Professionalism

PD review of written history and physical exams, EMG reports, and discharge summaries
360 Evaluations
Faculty evaluation of resident
Ethical reflections (written reflections based on DVD's)
Research Ethics DVD and lecture

Systems Based Practice

Attendance at quality improvement committee; chart audits
360 Evaluations
Faculty evaluation of resident
Lectures- vocational rehabilitation, billing and coding,

End of Document

Prepared by: Samuel M. Bierner, MD
E-mail: Samuel.Bierner@utsouthwestern.edu

This document is subject to periodic revision. The version available on line at the UT Southwestern web site is the most current version.

