Purpose and Content

The purpose of this unique surgical pathology course is to provide the participants with information concerning current issues in surgical pathology. Emphasis will include both overviews of selected topics of continuing interest and updates on methods for solving diagnostic problems encountered in surgical pathology.

The program will consist of a series of 50-minute lectures by nationally recognized pathologists, and the format will include clinical-pathologic correlations and question-answer sessions.

Educational Objectives

Upon completion of this course, participants should be able to link the educational objectives to Core Competencies (Medical Knowledge and Patient Care) and be able to describe and discuss:

- Diagnosis and current management of endometrial carcinoma
- Diagnosis of early cervical neoplasia and diagnostic pitfalls
- Use of an algorithm in the diagnosis of liver tumors
- Guidelines for integrating morphology and ancillary techniques in the diagnosis and classification of myeloid neoplasms
- Strategies for avoiding errors in the diagnosis of difficult breast lesions in small biopsies, with emphasis on new tests being employed in the evaluation and treatment of breast cancer patients

Accreditation

The University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Credit Designation

The University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center designates this live educational activity for a maximum of 20.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Conflict of Interest

All persons in the position to control the content of an educational activity are required to disclose all relevant financial relationships in any amount occurring within the past 12 months with any entity producing, marketing, re-selling, or distributing health care goods or services consumed by, or used on patients. A primary mechanism to resolve identified conflicts of interest is a content review that is prior to the activity.

Discussion of Off-Label Use

This course is meant to educate physicians with what is currently in use and what may be available in the future. Speakers have been requested to inform the audience when off-label use is being discussed.

Registration

The registration fee entitles the participant admission to the conference, all course materials, breakfast, lunch and refreshment breaks during the meeting. Registration is confirmed upon receipt of registration fee. Registration cannot be processed without payment. Please register early. We cannot guarantee course materials on site to anyone registering later than April 18, 2014.

Refund Policy

A $50 handling fee will be deducted from cancellation refunds. Refund requests must be received by mail or fax prior to April 18, 2014. No refunds will be made thereafter.

Who Should Attend

This intensive review is designed for practicing pathologists and other interested physicians who have the desire to remain abreast of current issues in surgical pathology.

Who Should Attend

Physicians should claim only credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in this activity.
Cancelling Policy
The Office of Continuing Medical Education reserves the right to limit registration and cancel courses, no less than one week prior to the course, should circumstances make this necessary.

Additional Information
For additional information, please call the Office of Continuing Medical Education, 214-648-3138, 1-800-688-8678, or email cme.registrations@utsouthwestern.edu.

Program Accessibility
