In the midst of the deep humanitarian crisis India faces due to COVID-19, many are compelled to do whatever they can to help. This is especially true for those with friends and families living in India. Learn more about relief efforts in India by contacting the organizations below.

COVID-19 PANDEMIC IN INDIA

Raise your awareness of the non-profits providing much needed care and support

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Non-Profit</th>
<th>Services</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>UNICEF</td>
<td>Supplies oxygen concentrators, testing systems, PPE kits and personal care products.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>AMERICARES</td>
<td>Supplies oxygen concentrators, ventilators, PPE kits, masks, sanitizers, thermometers and other medical equipment. In addition, they provide telehealth consultations, delivery of medication and educates communities about COVID-19.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>INDIAN RED CROSS SOCIETY</td>
<td>Indian Red Cross Society operates blood drives and delivers equipment across the country.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>VIBHA</td>
<td>Provides food and hygiene kits for families, oxygen concentrators to hospitals, and is working to set up vaccination centers.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CARE INDIA</td>
<td>Is a humanitarian organization that focuses on helping marginalized women and girls. This organization also provides PPE to frontline workers.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>MAKE A DIFFERENCE</td>
<td>Make A Difference is an international nonprofit that supports children in need of care and protection. This organization helps children in 65 shelters across 23 cities.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF PHYSICIANS OF INDIAN ORIGIN (AAPI)</td>
<td>Represents more than 80,000 practicing physicians in the U.S. and is using its resources to provide oxygen concentrators to India.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>INTERNATIONAL MEDICAL CORPS</td>
<td>Provides PPE, sanitation and hygiene supplies, and isolation facilities, as well as addresses vaccine misinformation and concerns surrounding vaccine hesitancy.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>UNITED WAY WORLDWIDE</td>
<td>Provides direct relief to the most vulnerable in India. This organization is focused on providing medical supplies, including BIPAP machines and hospital beds, for the hardest-hit areas.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>US INDIA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE (USICOC)</td>
<td>Sends medical equipment to India to aid with the COVID-19 crisis. The USICOC has shipped ventilators and oxygen concentrators to hard-hit regions in India.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

EMPLOYEE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

UT Southwestern’s Employee Assistance Program (EAP) has experienced, licensed EAP counselors to assist employees with coping and managing with personal problems at home or at work. Note: if you need urgent medical/psychological help, please call 911 or visit the closest emergency room.
Oxygen for India (organized by the Center for Disease Dynamics, Economics & Policy) sets up help desks at various hospitals to ensure that people get access to oxygen cylinders and concentrators for free.

The Salvation Army International operates a number of hospitals and clinics across India to care for patients with COVID-19.

Salvation Army International provides PPE, sanitation and hygiene supplies, and isolation facilities; as well as addresses vaccine misinformation and concerns surrounding vaccine hesitancy.

India Association of North Texas (IANT) provides PPE, sanitation and hygiene supplies, and isolation facilities; as well as addresses vaccine misinformation and concerns surrounding vaccine hesitancy.

The IRCS, India’s chapter of the international voluntary humanitarian organization, provides medical resources — including oxygen concentrators, ventilators and bedside monitors to hospitals around India, and helps administer vaccines.

Project Hope is a global aid organization that distributes medical supplies in India and educates communities on how to stop COVID-19 from spreading.

The American India Foundation (AIF) provides medical supplies, supplies PPE to frontline workers and educates communities about the pandemic.

Salvation Army International operates a number of hospitals and clinics across India to care for patients with COVID-19.

The Indian Red Cross Society (IRCS) The IRCS, India’s chapter of the international voluntary humanitarian organization, provides medical resources — including oxygen concentrators, ventilators and bedside monitors to hospitals around India, and helps administer vaccines.

Project Hope is a global aid organization that distributes medical supplies in India and educates communities on how to stop COVID-19 from spreading.

The American India Foundation (AIF) provides medical supplies, supplies PPE to frontline workers and educates communities about the pandemic.

Salvation Army International operates a number of hospitals and clinics across India to care for patients with COVID-19.

The Indian Red Cross Society (IRCS) The IRCS, India’s chapter of the international voluntary humanitarian organization, provides medical resources — including oxygen concentrators, ventilators and bedside monitors to hospitals around India, and helps administer vaccines.

Project Hope is a global aid organization that distributes medical supplies in India and educates communities on how to stop COVID-19 from spreading.

The American India Foundation (AIF) provides medical supplies, supplies PPE to frontline workers and educates communities about the pandemic.

Salvation Army International operates a number of hospitals and clinics across India to care for patients with COVID-19.

The Indian Red Cross Society (IRCS) The IRCS, India’s chapter of the international voluntary humanitarian organization, provides medical resources — including oxygen concentrators, ventilators and bedside monitors to hospitals around India, and helps administer vaccines.

Project Hope is a global aid organization that distributes medical supplies in India and educates communities on how to stop COVID-19 from spreading.

The American India Foundation (AIF) provides medical supplies, supplies PPE to frontline workers and educates communities about the pandemic.

Salvation Army International operates a number of hospitals and clinics across India to care for patients with COVID-19.

The Indian Red Cross Society (IRCS) The IRCS, India’s chapter of the international voluntary humanitarian organization, provides medical resources — including oxygen concentrators, ventilators and bedside monitors to hospitals around India, and helps administer vaccines.

Project Hope is a global aid organization that distributes medical supplies in India and educates communities on how to stop COVID-19 from spreading.

The American India Foundation (AIF) provides medical supplies, supplies PPE to frontline workers and educates communities about the pandemic.

Salvation Army International operates a number of hospitals and clinics across India to care for patients with COVID-19.

The Indian Red Cross Society (IRCS) The IRCS, India’s chapter of the international voluntary humanitarian organization, provides medical resources — including oxygen concentrators, ventilators and bedside monitors to hospitals around India, and helps administer vaccines.