

Learn to Lead!

Explore and Develop Your Leadership Potential

Leadership is about influence and the ability to make things happen, not just “being in charge.” Therefore, leadership skills are critically important for faculty success at any stage of the academic career.

- The LEAD Program is designed for Junior Faculty who aspire to develop their leadership skills.
- The curriculum includes modules in self-discovery, communication, influence, negotiation, difficult conversations, inspiring trust and embracing diversity.
- The format includes didactic lectures, case studies and experiential activities. Participants will work with executive coaches and anchor the LEAD learning objectives with an Individual Capstone Leadership Project.

Find the LEAD Application at www.utsouthwestern.edu/fdd

The LEAD Program was developed as a collaboration between the Office of Faculty Diversity & Development, Office of Women’s Careers, Organizational Development & Training, Human Resources, and Faculty Leaders at UT Southwestern.
