

Final week to nominate Leaders in Clinical Excellence

July 8, 2025

To the UT Southwestern Community:

Last month, we wrote to announce the opening of the nomination period for the 2025 Leaders in Clinical Excellence Awards – an opportunity to honor physicians across our Health System who embody the very best of UT Southwestern in service to our patients, their families, our community, and each other.

With the July 15 deadline just one week away, we encourage you to submit nominations and help us learn more about those whose work has a meaningful and lasting impact and merits special recognition.

There are seven award categories to consider, including the Patricia and William L. Watson Jr., M.D. Award for Excellence in Clinical Medicine – our institution’s highest honor in clinical care.

Please review the award categories and eligibility criteria and submit your nominations through the Clinical Faculty Awards website. Currently, many departments are underrepresented among the nominations received to date. Your participation ensures that exceptional clinicians – across all settings, specialties, and departments – receive the recognition they deserve for the care they provide and the contributions they make to UT Southwestern.

Nominations will be accepted through Tuesday, July 15, and will be reviewed by a faculty awards committee.

We look forward to celebrating this year’s honorees with you at the 2025 awards ceremony on November 5.
