UT Southwestern has drafted a new policy in response to the Department of Education's Final Rule on Title IX Sexual Harassment. Importantly, UT Southwestern will continue to review and investigate the full spectrum of cases that may constitute sexual misconduct or harassment that is not otherwise subject to this policy. Accordingly, the Institution has also completed a thorough review and update of its other relevant sexual misconduct and grievance policies.
REVISED PROCESSES + SUPPORTIVE MEASURES

UT Southwestern has clarified the process for concerns that will proceed through the new Title IX Grievance Process, and built out its supportive resources to better assist all parties in Title IX concerns, as well as parties whose concerns are reviewed pursuant to other relevant University codes of conduct.

As UT Southwestern readies for Title IX changes to Sexual Misconduct regulations, the campus community should stay informed about what these updates mean.

Supportive Measures

Supportive measures must be offered to an alleged victim once an institution has actual knowledge of potential harassment. Assistance must be offered also to respondent once a formal complaint is filed.

Navigating Safe Relationships While Social Distancing
In April, OIEA joined institutions and organizations nationwide in recognizing the 19th annual Sexual Assault Awareness Month, organized by the National Sexual Violence Resource Center (NSVRC). Sexual Assault Awareness Month seeks to raise awareness about sexual harassment, sexual assault, and abuse. OIEA created virtual offerings, which incorporated NSVRC's I Ask Campaign. An excerpt of the campaign is included in OIEA's Sexual Assault Awareness Month Virtual Resource Guide.

The culminating event for this month of virtual events was the Navigating Safe Relationships webinar, where OIEA partnered with EAP to discuss best practices for preventing partner violence while social distancing.

Pride Month: Visibility, Identity, & Advocacy
As part of its Summer Learning Series, the Division of Title IX hosted a joint program with the Division of Diversity & Inclusion in recognition of Pride Month. The program, entitled Visibility, Identity, and Advocacy highlighted marginalized voices in the community to discuss relevant issues affecting the LGBTQ+ community, and presenting collaborative paths forward. Registrants and attendees received a Resource Guide following the event, and feedback was overwhelmingly positive.

The Time is Now: A Conversation with Dr. Lauren Powell of TIME'S UP Healthcare
Continuing the OIEA Summer Learning Series, the Division of Title IX hosted The Time is Now: A Conversation with Dr. Lauren Powell, Vice President of Health Care at Time’s Up Healthcare. Dr. Powell discussed issues related to safety, equity, and power in the healthcare setting. With over 90 registrants, the event also received positive reviews as part of the exit survey following the event.
