

A Randomized Phase III Study of Sublobar Resection (SR) versus Stereotactic Ablative Radiotherapy (SABR) in High Risk Patients with Stage I Non-Small Cell Lung Cancer (NSCLC)

“Stablemates Trial”

New Stablemates sites ready to go

Two more sites have opened the Stablemates trial and are ready to enroll patients.

At Ochsner Medical Center in New Orleans, the trial is led by PI Mini Elnaggar, M.D. Dr. Elnaggar earned her medical degree at the Louisiana State University at New Orleans, then went on to complete a radiation oncology residency at Rush University Medical Center in Chicago. Her special interests include thoracic malignancies, breast and gynecologic cancers, and other solid tumors.

The trial at SUNY- Upstate Medical University in Syracuse, N.Y., is led PI Jeffrey Bogart, M.D. Dr. Bogart is professor and chair of radiation oncology, and currently serves as interim director of the Upstate Cancer Center. A SUNY veteran, he completed both his medical degree and residency in radiation oncology at SUNY Health Science Center.

Jolt-Ca Study Accrual by Site

* Online training. Investigators who are not able to complete their training in a single session may find that their account is not available when they try to log in again the next time. This is because the system is cleaned out every once in a while and inactive accounts are deleted. If you need to finish your training and can't find your account, simply create a new one to continue.

* Mobile-enhanced pdf. Just a reminder that you can go to the Stablemates web site here (<http://www.joltca.org/about>), scroll down to "Trial Protocol" and click on a link to download a pdf summary of the Stablemates trial criteria and patient talking points, conveniently formatted to fit your smartphone screen. An easy way to keep relevant information about the Stablemates trial close at hand!
