

2011-2012 SCIENCE OF MEDICINE THEME

AGING

CRAIG RUBIN, M.D., THEME DIRECTOR

Timetable for Curricular Activities

Date	Medical School (MS1)	School of Health Professions (HP1)	Graduate School (DBS1)
August
September
October 14		SSHP Lecture Series: Lecture on Alzheimer's Disease, M. Quiceno
November	Patient Intro - Anatomy: Clinical Anatomy of Aging, A. Shah (11/7) Physiology: Clin. Corr. Age-related Sarcopenia, A. Shah (11/29)	SSHP Lecture Series: Mrs. Cooper Case presented from the perspective of the health care team – 1, Program Faculty (11/11)
December
January 4	Faculty Development for Interprofessional Education
January 13		SSHP Lecture Series: Mrs. Cooper Case presented from the perspective of the health care team – 2, Program Faculty
January 18	Combined College, RCR and IDEAL Small Groups Teamwork
February 10		SSHP Lecture Series: Mrs. Cooper Case presented from the perspective of the health care team – 3, Program Faculty
February 15	Combined College, RCR and IDEAL Small Groups Ethics of Sexual Boundaries
March	Medical Physiology: Mr. Cooper Case – "Physiologic Changes of Aging," A. Shah (3/5)		RCR Course: Cooper Daughter Case presented from perspectives of basic and translational research, M. Quiceno (3/7)
March 21 Convergence Day	Combined College, RCR and IDEAL Small Groups 1-2:30 PM- Family case discussion from the perspective of each profession 2:40-3:50 PM - Aging-related team-based activities 4-5 PM - All students attend University Lecture – Nir Barzilai, MD

Activities Centered on a Family Case Study for Aging