

Q3. I received a payment for my clinical trial. Why has the budget not increased?

The reason why the budget has not increased is because Sponsored Programs Administration no longer increases award budgets on a payment-by-payment basis. SPA will begin to advance the budget at the time of award setup when a Chart of Account (COA) is created, then again periodically throughout the lifecycle of the award, as needed.