SCOTTISH RITE FOR CHILDREN

- Scottish Rite for Children is an affiliate of UT Southwestern.
- Scottish Rite specializes in the treatment of pediatric orthopedic conditions and sports injuries, as well as related neurodevelopmental and musculoskeletal conditions and certain learning disorders, such as dyslexia.
- The mission of Scottish Rite includes quality clinical care, innovative research and teaching programs.
- Scottish Rite has two primary locations: Scottish Rite for Children Orthopedic Hospital in Dallas and Scottish Rite for Children Orthopedic and Sports Medicine Center in Frisco, as well as a satellite facility, Scottish Rite for Children at The Star in Frisco.
- Scottish Rite has six Centers for Excellence in: Spine, Limb Lengthening, Hand, Foot & Ankle, Hip, and Sports Medicine.
- The Dallas campus location hosts The Sarah M. and Charles Seay Center for Musculoskeletal Research world-renowned basic science laboratory.
- The Luke Waites Center for Dyslexia and Learning Disorders is located at the Dallas campus.
- Scottish Rite has state-of-the-art Movement Science Laboratories at both the Dallas and Frisco locations.

SCOTTISH RITE FOR CHILDREN

- The Division of Clinical Research, Department of Research conducts Human Subjects Research at Scottish Rite for Children.
- Research studies include clinical drug trials, device trials, multi-site research, surveys, dyslexia education evaluations, intervention studies, observational studies and prospective/retrospective chart reviews.
- As a UTSW Affiliate, Scottish Rite uses the UTSW IRB.
- All Scottish Rite research staff must meet all UTSW credentialing standards and follow all policies and procedures.
- Scottish Rite does not provide training, credentialing or other services for staff not involved with research at our facility.
- For all research using Scottish Rite as a performance site, there is an additional review process through the Scottish Rite Research Advisory Panel (RAP). Submissions are due by the last Friday of each month. The RAP meets monthly to review all proposals.
